

CIVIL SERVANTS ACT, 1973

Section 5. Appointments

Appointments to the civil service of the Federation shall be made by the President, or by a person authorized by the President in that behalf, in the prescribed manner.

Section 11. Termination of service

The service of a civil servant may be terminated without notice- (i) during the period of probation; (ii) on the abolition of post or reduction in cadre, in which case the services of the most junior person shall be terminated; or (iii) on the completion of the tenure of appointment.
