

CODE OF CRIMINAL PROCEDURE, 1898

Section 54. When police may arrest without warrant

Any police officer may, without an order from a Magistrate and without a warrant, arrest; First, any person who has been concerned in any cognizable offence or against whom a reasonable complaint has been made or credible information has been received... Fourth, any person in whose possession anything is found which may reasonably be suspected to be stolen property... Fifth, any person who has been proclaimed as an offender...

Section 154. Information in cognizable cases

Every information relating to the commission of a cognizable offence if given orally to an officer in charge of a police station, shall be reduced to writing by him or under his direction, and be read over to the informant; and every such information, whether given in writing or reduced to writing as aforesaid, shall be signed by the person giving it, and the substance thereof shall be entered in a book to be kept by such officer...
